At Foundry Social/ High Voltage Karting/ MAD Brewing Company the health and safety of our guests and employees is our highest priority. As concerns increase over the coronavirus, know that we are monitoring state, health department and CDC recommendations and guidelines. We are taking any and all preventative measures to ensure that Foundry Social/ High Voltage Karting/ MAD Brewing Company remains a fun, clean, and safe space for people of all ages to experience.

Our team actively cleans and disinfects all areas in the building throughout the day. Tabletops, bar tops, restrooms, racing helmets, bowling balls, check-in kiosks, steering wheels, arcade games, door handles, and have always been cleaned and disinfected daily. We require racing guests to wear clean head socks under their helmet, and we are spraying the helmets with commercial disinfectant after use. During the recent outbreak we have taken the additional following measures:

- Disinfecting kiosks, railings, doorknobs, and other surfaces throughout the day.
- Increased frequency of disinfecting arcade games, game controllers, and bowling balls.
- Disinfection of go karts including seat and steering wheel.
- Added more hand sanitizer stations throughout the building.
- Updated air filtration system now filtering microscopic particles including bacteria and sneezes.
- Implemented protections for hand to hand transmission, surface to hand based transmission and airborne transmission.

Out of courtesy to other guests and employees, we ask that anybody who isn't feeling well should stay home. If you have a reservation and are concerned, we can move it to a later date at no additional charge.

The safety of our guests and employees has always been of the highest priority at Foundry Social/ High Voltage Karting/ MAD Brewing Company. We recognize the new challenges the virus is causing, and we will make the necessary adjustments in daily procedures to continue to assure that level of safety.

We are committed to doing everything we can to create a Fun and Safe environment for our guests to enjoy. Your peace of mind and safety is critical to us.
